

DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR COLLOQUIUM SERIES

The Distinguished Visiting Professor Colloquium Series is a Universitywide program that brings distinguished speakers to each of Marymount's four Schools: Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Human Services, and Health Professions.

The primary goal of the Distinguished Visiting Professor Colloquium Series is to enrich the intellectual life of the campus. The program provides opportunities for Marymount faculty and students to interact with individuals who have significant influence in a wide array of fields. Their presentations enable the members of Marymount's academic community to become more attuned to the challenges and opportunities prevalent in diverse areas of endeavor. Through the Distinguished Visiting Professor Colloquia, the University's faculty and students engage in substantive dialogue with leaders who shape and influence our world. Following is a list of Marymount University Distinguished Visiting Professors with their titles at the time of their presentations.
